Biosphere 2 - Field Trip Rules

There are very clear rules and expectations for scholars to follow throughout the day. Your science teacher will contact any parent regarding any infraction that needs immediate attention. If you have any questions, you may email your science teacher.

Behavior

Horseplay, goofing off, or public displays of affection will not be allowed. This includes fake pushing, fake jumping, holding hands, etc. No teasing, fighting, bullying, defiance of authority, willful destruction of property, or disrespect of adults/scholars will be tolerated. No threats of violence whether verbal, physical, sexual, or pretend threats will be tolerated. If a scholar is found breaking these rules, they will stay on the bus for the rest of the day with a chaperone and parents will be contacted.

Phones/devices

- Cell phones, music players, and external batteries are allowed. All other electronic devices (laptops, iPads, gaming systems, etc.) are prohibited.
- Phones are to remain off on the bus ride up to the Biosphere 2. Parents may contact their child through the front office who will have access to the faculty and relay any messages as needed.
- Once inside Biosphere 2, phones are permitted to be used as cameras only. There will be no texting, playing games, surfing the web, etc. Phones may be confiscated by the chaperone if the scholar is misusing the cell phone.
- Phones may be used on the ride home to contact family and listen to music. Scholars must use their own earbuds/headphones and cannot share with a peer.
- Any downloaded/streamed movie or video from any source is prohibited. Sources include but are not limited to Amazon, Netflix, Hulu, Youtube, etc.

Travel games are permitted (i.e. cards, travel, connect 4, etc.).

Prohibited

The following items are prohibited and will be confiscated:

- Electronic devices other than cellphones such as Laser pointers, Toys.
- Skateboards, roller blades, etc.
- Anything disrupting or potentially dangerous to other scholars or chaperones

Disciplinary Actions Violation of rules will result in the following consequences:

- Confiscation of the property
- Notification to parents
- Detention

Parent's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Scholar's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent's Cell Phone: _____