

Earn College Credit

There are three ways to earn college credit while enrolled at Great Hearts: CLEP, AP, and Concurrent Enrollment! Students and parents should know there is nuance with each method. Please connect with your college counselor to determine which method is best for you. It is important to note that none of these methods guarantee college credit. Students must research the grade they need to achieve and whether or not the colleges they are interested in accept the credit.

Exam Dates (2024)

CLEP Exam administration is available at Scottsdale Prep on the dates below.

- Wednesday, January 10 at 3:00 pm
- Wednesday, March 20 at 3:00 pm
- Wednesday, May 15 at 3:00 pm
- Friday, August 2 at 3:00 pm

Exam Registration (Two-Part Process)

1. Visit CLEP.collegeboard.org to select and pay for CLEP test. (Cost: $93/exam)
2. Visit <https://scottsdaleprep.configio.com> to select your test date.

Students must earn a certain grade to receive college credit for the test. For this reason, it is highly recommended a student take only the test(s) they are most confident in and invest ample time studying. Please visit the College Board's CLEP website for a complete list of exams: <https://CLEP.collegeboard.org/clep-exams>

Not all colleges will accept CLEP exams. Before taking them, look into the colleges the student is interested in to see if they have a course equivalency guide. For example, ASU's course equivalency guide explains how CLEP exams translate to credit: https://catalog.asu.edu/credit\_exam

Free study resource available through Modern States. Upon successful completion, students receive a voucher for a free CLEP test.

AP Precalculus / DNYD6A
AP United States History / ERPRZY

Students do not need to be enrolled in an AP class to take the AP exam; however, Great Hearts courses do not precisely align with AP curriculum. For this reason, it is recommended students invest plenty of time to prepare for the exam. In order to receive credit for an AP test, students typically need to score at least a 3, 4, or 5.

Not all colleges will accept AP exams. Before taking them, look into the colleges the student is interested in to see if they have a course equivalency guide. For example, ASU's course equivalency guide explains how AP exams translate to credit: https://catalog.asu.edu/credit\_exam.

Concurrent Enrollment

Students can concurrently enroll in Community College courses during the summer. This gives students a head start on college by allowing them to take college-credit courses while still completing a high school education. Visit your local community college to enroll.

- Make an appointment with your Great Hearts college counselor or community college advisor to determine the best class(es) for you.
- Maricopa Community College tuition is $97/credit and a typical course is 3 credits. Students are responsible for their own enrollment as Great Hearts is not officially partnered with the Maricopa Community Colleges. Learn more at Maricopa.edu.
- Students typically need to earn a "C" grade or better to earn credit in a community college course.
- For the in-state schools in Arizona, you may use this course equivalency guide to see how the course would transfer to one of the three state universities:
<https://aztransmac2.asu.edu/cgi-bin/WebObjects/CEG>
- For schools outside Arizona, credit transfers cannot be guaranteed. Students must contact colleges/universities to determine how they might accept community college course credit.
